PROGRAM UPDATE
(as of February 27, 2013)

1) CANCELLATIONS

The following presentations have been canceled. The presenters send their regrets and apologies:

- (1.1.5) The development of the Desano orthography: Overcoming challenges (Wilson Silva) – Thursday, Feb. 28, Sarimanok Room, 10:50-11:20
- (1.2.5) Documenting the revival of Kulitan, the indigenous Kapampangan script (Michael Raymon Pangilinan) - Thursday, Feb. 28, Sarimanok Room, 11:30–12:00
- (2.2.3) Digital dictionary development for Torwali, a less-studied language: Process and challenges (Inam Ullah & Gull Feroz) - Friday, Mar. 1, Asia Room, 9:40–10:10
- (4.1.1) From Elands to ELAN: The Juǀʼhoan chase linguists out of the Kalahari (Lee J. Pratchett & Megan Biesele) - Sunday, Mar. 3, Keoni Auditorium, 9:00-9:30
- (P1.4) An evaluation of the influences of Tok Pisin and its effects on the Mufian language of the Maprik district in the East Sepik Province of Papua New Guinea (Bernadette Hurokoli Boiefin) - Thursday, Feb. 28, Wailana Room, 12:00–1:00
- (P1.9) A critically endangered language: A case study of Kanakanavu (Paul Li) - Thursday, Feb. 28, Wailana Room, 12:00–1:00
- (P1.12) A usage-based definition of language documentation (Bradley McDonnell & Stephanie Gamble Morse) - Thursday, Feb. 28, Wailana Room, 12:00–1:00
- (P2.13) Beyond speech balloons: Realizing the full potential of comics for endangered language publications (Hannah Sarvasy) - Saturday, Mar. 2, Wailana Room, 11:45–12:45
- (EP16) Online with a heart: Accessibility and humanity in web-based endangered language course development (Conor Quinn) - Friday, Mar. 1, Koi Room, 11:45–12:45

2) SCHEDULE CHANGE

Documenting ethnobotanical knowledge among Gújjolaay-Eegimaa speakers (Serge Sagna) was originally scheduled for Thursday, 1:40-2:10 pm, in the Koi Room (1.4.2), but because of a flight delay affecting the presenter, it has been rescheduled for the following: Friday, 11:00-11:30 am, in the Sarimanok Room.

3) CORRECTION

The affiliation for plenary speaker Chad Kālepa Baybayan is the Polynesian Voyaging Society (not the Pacific Voyaging Society). We sincerely apologize for this error.
4) NOTIFICATIONS

The following notifications and updates are provided for these presentations:

- The Ethnobotany Master Class taught by Dr. Tamara Ticktin (Thursday, 2/28 and Saturday, 3/2) will take a brief outdoor excursion near the Japanese Garden, weather permitting. Please wear comfortable shoes.
- (4.2.3) Pisamira(tuo) and Yuruti(yui): Split halfway. A sociocultural view from a linguistic research (Elizabeth Valencia Perez & Iveth Rodríguez) - Sunday, Mar. 3, Asia Room, 9:40–10:10 - this presentation will be delivered remotely and given in Spanish
- (4.4.4) Interdisciplinary perspectives on sign language and deaf/sign community documentation and vitalization in Uganda and Cameroon (Sam Lutalo-Kingi & Goedele De Clerck) - Sunday, Mar. 3, Pacific Room, 11:00-11:30 - this presentation will be delivered remotely

5) EXHIBITOR

Please visit the California University of Pennsylvania table in the Wailana Room during the conference to learn about their programs and offerings.

6) OFFICE HOUR CHANGE

The journal Language Documentation & Conservation will not be holding office hours at noon on Saturday in the Kaniela Room; instead, please visit us at our table in the Wailana Room at any time.

7) SATURDAY-SUNDAY LUNCH OPTIONS (on-campus)

The Curb Coffee Shop (located at Paradise Palms beside Hamilton Library) is open on Saturday-Sunday, 8:30 am-3:00 pm. Limited sandwiches and pastries are available for purchase.